

“Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal.”

Thomas Moore (1779–1852).

GOD’S WORD IS ALWAYS A COMFORT and the voice of His Spirit is always an encouragement in the hour of greatest trial. The Bible says, “The sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory that shall be revealed in us” (Romans 8:18). When we think about that, it helps us bear some of the things we have to go through now.

“Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning” (Psalm 30:5). We need to keep our eyes on Jesus and the end of life’s road. “For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory” (2 Corinthians 4:17).

God’s tomorrow is a beautiful place. We’ll be with Jesus and all our loved ones, and “there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying” (Revelation 21:4). He will wipe away our tears, and the former things shall be forgotten in the glories of the ecstasies of the kingdom to come.
