When everything else has passed away, you’ll still have Jesus! When everything else is gone, there will still be Jesus! When all others forsake you, there will still be Jesus! When you haven’t got anything left, there will still be Jesus! When everything else has gone to pot and lies in ruins, Jesus will still be with you. When the world has nothing left, you will still have Jesus! —And when you have Jesus, the two of you together can handle anything!

—David Brandt Berg